WHERE IS THE SCIENCE OF MEDI-WHERE IS THE SCIENCE OF MEDIcline !--In the last thirty years, in the cities of New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, fifty thousand persons died of consumption. In Great Britain during the same period, the mortality of consumptive persons amounts to sixty thousand.
Calomel, of course, killed every one of them.
There is no blessing like that of health, particularly when you're sick.

IMPORTANT SOURCES OF BODILY VIGOR.—Exercise, temperance in eating, pure air, frequent bath-cise, temperance in eating, pure air, frequent bath-ing, abstinence from stimulant luxuries and the abuse of sexual passions, pure and nutitritious Patent medicines will do for rats; but for men

Hood has just received an ad-onal stock of fine Jewelry and Watches, direct from the manufacturers, together with a variety of Spectacles and other goods, which he is selling at New York city prices, and from 15 to 25 per cent. lower than goods of the same quality can be purchased for elsewhere in this section of country, and no mistake. Please call and examine his stock and prices, at the sign of the Large Spread Eagle, Pennsylvania avenue, between 41 and 6th streets. N. B. Watch repairing in all its branches, neat executed, and with dispatch by Jan 10-tf W. W. HOLLINGSWORTH.

Decorations.—The attention of Architects, Builders, and others, is invited to this new material, which is now so extensively used at the north for house and church decoration. For beauty of finish and durability, it is equal to carved wood, and is much cheaper and in every way superior to plaster. We are prepared to fill orders upon the shortest notice, at the manufactory prices.

It has evidently been prepared with a great deal of care, and will be found very useful to the officers of the revenue and custom-house throughout the country, as well as the merchant and shipmaster. From the Washington Sentinel, Feb 4. We are indebted to Collins, Bowne & Co. for a opy of "Cone's Revenue Digest and Custom-House Guide," containing rules and routine of business in entering and clearing vessels, the manner of passing import, export, and transport entries, the forms of business in the different departments of customs, a detailed account of the collectors, naval officers, surveyors, and store-keepers' offices, and correct forms of entries, oaths, orders, bonds, permits, &c.

States.

Being the productions of distinguished jurists and civilians, fully authorized to decide the various questions of civil. common, international, constitutional, commercial, and municipal law, which have arisen in the course of the administration of the government, and bearing, as they do, upon nearly every subject of civil polity and jurisdiction, it necessarily follows that they are scarcely inferior in importance to the Constitution which they defend, and the laws which they explain. They not only set forth the political economy and fundamental principles of the federal government, and the rules and regulations enforced We are daily expecting an additional supply of the popular Unichord Pianos; also, per packet of Saturday from Boston, one of L. The subjects of national sovereignty, neutrality, extradition, &c., are therein thoroughly discussed. and our revenue laws, land laws, patent laws, pension laws, &c., commented upon and explained. It is, therefore, believed that public ministers, consuls, governors of States, district attorneys, marshals, collectors of customs, surveyors of ports, naval officers, receivers of public moneys, registers of land offices, Indian agents, officers of the army and navy, and, indeed, all public men will find these volumes a valuable acquisition to their libraries.

The editions put up in the style of Howard's Reports of Decisions of the Supreme Court, and sold at the moderate price of three dollars per volume. Librarians of States and public institutions are
